

John D Grassroots Fund at the Community Foundation

The Community Foundation is inviting applications for its John D Grassroots Fund which supports creative projects for children and young people.

Who can apply?

Community groups based in Tyne & Wear, with an annual income of under £75k wish to run out-of-school activities for children and young people.

Grants range from £500 - £2,500 and are for creative/artistic activities for children and young people that encourage them to be creative, have fun, and which could inspire them to take up a creative hobby/pastime. The fund holder likes projects to be a bit 'whacky' and 'off-the-wall' if possible.

Types of projects considered:-

Circus skills
Creative art sessions
Dance workshops
Drama production
Film-making
Music workshops
Outdoor art sessions
Photography
Poetry and creative writing

New ideas always welcome!

What will the grant cover:-

Sessional tutor /professional delivery costs
Creative resources and materials
Projects and workshop costs
Local trips and outings relevant to the creative project

How to apply:
