

Our Business Partners are proud supporters of the arts & culture community in the North East.

Our Partners are regarded as:

Champions of the arts, museums and heritage in our region;
Innovative and creative thinking businesses;
Sponsors and supporters of dozens of high quality cultural projects every year;
Part of an important and prestigious network.

Where does the partnership money go?

Our information, training and advisory programmes for the cultural community and for individual artists;
The development of culture themed funds for the region;
To inspire other businesses and people to support culture.
