

About Community Foundation membership for public bodies

The Community Foundation matches generous people with important community causes. Every year, we award hundreds of grants worth millions of pounds to small, local voluntary organisations through funds set up by our donors.

Part of our success is down to our unique membership structure, which keeps us connected to our communities. Our members comprise individuals, businesses, public bodies and voluntary organisations. The Community Foundation's board of trustees, which governs our work, is mainly elected from and by our members.

By becoming a member of the Community Foundation, your organisation helps us be accountable to the people and places we serve. As a member, you will receive our Yearbook, news updates and invitations to our events. You may also nominate people to join our Board and take part in any voting.

Our members are a very important part of the Community Foundation, and we very much hope you will want to be involved.

To become a member (or renewing membership), you agree to contribute £1 to the Community Foundation's assets in the unlikely event that we are wound up. The liability is for the period you are a member and for one year after you cease to be a member. You may cancel membership at any time by writing to us. The Board also has the right to refuse or terminate membership. The full rights and obligations of members are described in the Memorandum and Articles of Association, which is available at our offices.
